

A Book Is...

A book is a portal to destiny,
A sizzling mug of hot chocolate with marshmallows and cream.
A book is a high-flying beast,
An adventure greater than some could ever dream.

A book is an open door,
a journey that is exciting,
A rush of adrenaline
a spark that lets the light in.

A book is a box with a galaxy inside,
A world beyond what you've ever known.
A book is a paper movie,
A garden where ideas are carefully grown.

A book is a magical land of creativity,
A place of endless thoughts to explore.
A book is a door to the brain,
A new island to discover as you wash up on the shore.
